Summer Term 1

Reading:

Our class book this half term is Danny the Champion of the World by Roald Dahl. We will continue to focus our learning on the VIPERS skills: Vocabulary, Inference, Prediction, Explanation, Retrieval and Summarising.

Writing:

In our writing lessons this half term, we will be writing a setting description and creating a biography about a famous Egyptian pharaoh. This will allow us to investigate fiction and non-fiction writing in more detail.

Art:

In our art lessons, we will be exploring formal elements of art, including mark making, pattern and stamp printing.

History:

In history, we will be investigating the Ancient Egyptians. We will have the opportunity to look at Ancient Egyptian artifacts, Tutankhamun and their beliefs.

RE:

This half term, we will be looking into Buddhism with a focus on the question 'what is the best way for a Buddhist to lead a good life?'

PHSE:

In PSHE, we will be thinking about our 'relationships' topics, covering aspects such as memories and relationships with people and animals.

PE:

Please ensure P.E kits are brought in every Monday. This half term, we will be learning Rounders. We will be focusing on how we can adapt our play to improve performance.

Science:

In science, we will be learning about electricity. We will be making circuits, experimenting with different conductors and finding interesting material which can be used to make a switch.

Maths:

We will be continuing our decimal topic before moving on to money. We will explore notes, coins and finding change.

MFL:

In French, we will be exploring how conjunctions are used in French and include them in sentences with noun phrases.

Home Learning:

Homework packs should be handed in on a Monday. Please read with your child every day if possible, but a minimum of three times a week. Spellings will also be sent home weekly and tested in school on Wednesday. maths and reading comprehension will be sent home on alternate weeks.
